THE
MISSIONARY INTELLIGENCER.

VOL. VI.—NOVEMBER, 1893.—No. 11.

Proceedings of the General Christian Missionary Convention.

FORTY-FOURTH ANNIVERSARY.

The Convention assembled in the Central Christian Church, Chicago, at 2 P. M., Wednesday, September 20th, 1893, with President George Darsie in the chair.

The devotional exercises were led by I. N. McCash, of Iowa.

George Darsie delivered the President's annual address.

The Report of the Board of Managers was read by the Corresponding Secretary, J. H. Hardin, as follows:

Report of the Board of Managers.

"As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the Lord is round about his people forevermore."

Through the experiences of another year the God of our fathers has safely and lovingly led us, and here we gather to-day to give glad testimony to the constancy with which he has been round about us since we took the parting hand at the adjournment of our Convention a year ago.

It should be borne in mind that the holding of our Convention at this date, rather than in October as usual, makes it necessary for us to appear with the record of an incomplete year. We were compelled to close our financial accounts September 1st, so that we are able to report only eleven months' financial operations. We ask permission to report to date, and after the year closes to be allowed to add to present reports the operations of the remaining portions of the year, and submit the reports thus completed to the Acting Board to be audited before going to permanent record.*

J. H. HARDIN, Cor. Sec.

This does not include, of course, money received by our missionaries in their fields of labor. This can not very well be reported until the close of the year. It will be added and published with the minutes.

We began the year about $4,000.00 in debt. We earnestly hoped to pay all obligations and close the year free from debt, but the financial troubles of the past summer have so far interfered with our collections that we have not been able to do so. We feel that we have done well, all things considered, not to have fallen below the record of last year. With the return of confidence we believe we shall not only be able to pay off all obligations but to enlarge our operations as the cause demands. We have employed, for all or part of the time, fifty-five missionaries.

The following Missionaries have been added to our list during the year:

Jno. C. Hay, Roswell, New Mexico, and vicinity.
H. A. Northcutt, General Evangelist.
J. B. Mayfield, Knoxville, Tenn.
Walter L. Ross, Norman, Okla.
Albert Schwartz, Walnut Hills, Omaha, Neb.
J. W. Lowber, Galveston, Texas.
C. B. Edgar, Tacoma, Washington.
W. L. McCullough, Waterville, Washington.
Clarence Smith, Walla Walla, Washington.
Clarence E. Moore, Evangelist for Mississippi.
F. Walden, Boise City, Idaho.
W. L. Bowell, Evangelist for New England.
T. J. Giddens, one quarter, Hot Springs, Ark.

The following have retired from the work during the year:

Ira C. Mitchell from Birmingham, Ala.
J. B. Briney from Knoxville, Tenn.
J. H. Garvin from Sherman Heights, Tenn.
James Sharp from Hot Springs, Ark.
A. B. Phillips from Green Point, Brooklyn.
F. H. Simpson, Evangelist for South Dakota.
F. D. Muse from Whatcom, Wash.
Wm. Kelloway from Corvallis, Ore.
J. F. Stewart from East Portland, Ore.
J. B. Daisley from Walla Walla, Wash.
H. C. Combs from Macon, Ga.
S. P. Benbrook, Evangelist for Louisiana.

Acting in harmony with the suggestion of the Committee on Nominations at Nashville, the Board employed R. Moffett as Assistant Corresponding Secretary, beginning Jan. 1. Bro. Moffett's experience in the management of the work has of course been valuable. He has attended a number of Conventions, held two protracted meetings, assisted in clerical work and canvassed considerably among the churches in the interests of the May Collection and of the Boston Debt Fund; which, together with the Salt Lake Church Building Fund, was committed to his management. At Nashville the Committee on Ways and Means made the following recommendation in regard to Boston, which was adopted:

"We recommend that the Convention accept the proposition made by the Boston church, as presented in the report of the Corresponding Secretary on page 7, as follows: 'On condition that the General Board will pay the pastor's salary for five years, the Boston church will raise $1,500 per annum during this period, and apply it to the liquidation of the church debt and interest, relying upon the brethren at large to meet us with the required balance of $1,000 per year.'

"If we raise more than $1,500 any year, and the brethren at large supplement our effort with the above named $1,000 yearly, we will give the surplus to apply on our pastor's salary. By this arrangement the General Board can safely expect to be relieved of a part of its obligation before the expiration of five years."

Pledges were made by the brethren at the Nashville Convention for this work, amounting to some $320 (now about $600) per year for five years. Brother Moffett has received for this fund during the year, $118.80. The Boston church is making heroic efforts to meet its part of the agreement. It was thought best not to push this in a way that would interfere with our Sunday-school and church collections for the Evangelizing Fund, and after these were out of the way, the hard times interfered with further effort.

The Nashville Convention adopted the following from the Committee on Ways and Means: "We recognize, with devout thankfulness to God, the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor as a factor in the enterprises of the church. We mention with special pride their undertaking to build a church house in Salt Lake City, and we recommend that everything in our power be done to encourage them to press this enterprise to an early and complete success."

The Endeavor Societies have raised for this church building, in cash and pledges, about $5,000. The lecture room, to cost about $7,000, is now being built. We believe the $2,000 necessary to be raised to finish it will be furnished. We trust it may be raised in time to prevent Bro. Clay and the faithful band in Salt Lake from spending another winter in that comfortless, cheerless tent.

We desire to express our appreciation of the assistance rendered by our Endeavorers in this matter. We have come to look to them for a quickening of the whole church in missionary zeal and enthusiasm.

J. Z. Tyler, of Cleveland, Ohio, who was appointed National Superintendent of Christian Endeavor work among our people, will at the proper time submit his report, which will show that he has done all in his power to stimulate the societies among us to take hold of all wise and worthy enterprises.

Our General Evangelist, H. A. Northcutt, began his labors January 1. His labors in our mission fields have been greatly blessed.

Scores of calls for his services, which we can not answer favorably, have come to us. We should have not less than twenty such evangelists at work.

To meet this demand, the secretary has been authorized to organize a guarantee fund. A beginning has been made in this matter, and it will be completed as soon as circumstances make it practicable.

The work in the great Northwest, under the wise management and faithful toil of W. F. Cowden and his co-laborers, has made splendid progress. It should be continued, strengthened and enlarged. A detailed report from this department will be printed in the minutes.

In order that we as a people might be suitably represented in an exhibit at the World's Fair now in progress in this city, it was determined to appropriate $100.00 to assist in defraying the expenses of such exhibit. The secretary was ordered to have printed a brief tract setting forth our fundamental principles, for distribution in connection with this exhibit. This has been done. Maps, statistical tables, etc., have been placed in the space allowed us. We have received many evidences of the wisdom of this effort to bring ourselves before the visitors to this great exposition.

The Corresponding Secretary has been instructed to organize the United States and Territories into convenient districts, so that District Secretaries may be appointed, whose duty it shall be to prosecute the work of this Society in the districts assigned. These districts have been formed, and a beginning has been made in the appointment of District Secretaries. This will require some time and careful personal work, but it ought to be pushed vigorously until we are so organized that the Corresponding Secretary can easily reach every church with any plan he may be charged to execute, and every missionary in the employ of the Board, without the necessity for the constant repetition of visits to the same parts of the field.

The Corresponding Secretary made a visit to Oklahoma in May, to attend the Territorial Convention and to look after our missions there. He opened up the project of securing lots on which to build church houses in the newly opened Cherokee country; but believing that this belongs rightly to the Church Extension Department, the Secretary recommended that the Church Extension Board take it in hand. This has been done, and a man has been placed in charge of this important matter. We should have a General Evangelist at work in Oklahoma and the Cherokee country as soon as possible.

In order to give a more favorable time for the collection for the work of Negro Evangelization and Education, the Board has consented to recommend that the time for our Sunday-school collection be changed from the first Sunday in December to Christmas. This will not prevent any school which prefers to do so from using some other time, either before or after.

It is believed that the time has come when most of our Sunday-schools which contribute to our mission work will welcome this as a suitable way of celebrating the birth of our Saviour, instead of many of the methods now in vogue. Preparations for advertising and stimulating this offering are already far advanced, and will be ready in good time. We received this year a handsome increase in the gifts from our Sunday-schools, and we hope for still larger things from them for the year to come.

The Corresponding Secretary has been instructed to give attention to the organization of our people in the cities, with a special view to larger undertakings in the direction of City Evangelization. This has been done in the belief that we have too long neglected proper efforts to plant ourselves in the great cities of this country. It is the belief of the Board that we should at once inaugurate a complete system of City Evangelization. We believe that when it is known that we have undertaken large things in this direction, the people will give more liberally than ever before to support our work.

Says Samuel Lane Loomis, in his work on the Growth of Modern Cities: "The present may be the age of great cities, but the future is the age of greater. This must especially be the case in the United States. The youngest of the Nations has already more large cities than any except Great Britain and Germany. Though still in their infancy, our principal towns surpass in size, and in the tumult of their life, many of the older and flourishing capitals of Europe. With the country growing in population at a rate unprecedented in the annals of all times, and the towns growing twice as fast; with what seems a certainty of having as many inhabitants within one hundred years as all Europe has at present; with every probability that the people of the Twentieth Century will centralize themselves even more than those of the Nineteenth, the United States may fairly expect to possess cities whose greatness cannot be equaled by anything the world has yet seen.

"The wisest efforts of philanthropy will not be spent in the vain effort to prevent the incoming of men to them, but in the effort to make them better places for human habitation; not in checking their growth, but in quenching their iniquity."

In order to afford an opportunity for an exchange of thought upon this subject, we have given it a place on the programme of this Convention, and hope it may receive the attention and emphasis which the subject demands. We recommend the appointment of a special committee of five to whom this whole matter shall be referred, and that said committee be called upon for a report in the regular order.

It has been suggested that we enlarge the scope of our tract fund, so as to give it the proportions adequate for a propaganda fund.

Several times during the year inquiries have been made for tracts. The only thing we have available at present is the tract alluded to at another place in this report, intended for distribution at the World's Fair. The favor with which this has been received, together with the evidences we have of a growing interest in the circulation of well prepared literature calculated to acquaint the world with our history and teachings, indicate that the time has come for us to make an advanced step in this important matter. The Board will welcome wise and practical instruction on the subject. Steps have already been taken to furnish our Swedish evangelists with tracts in their own tongue.

There is a desire on the part of our brethren in Ontario to enter into organic co-operation with this Convention. The Assistant Corresponding Secretary was present at their annual Convention at Everton, and aided the brethren in reaching the following action: "That the Ontario Convention send three delegates to the next annual Convention of the G. C. M. C., and that these delegates enter into communication with the General Board, with the view to bringing Ontario into the same relation to the G. C. M. C. that any State of the Union now sustains." The committee appointed consists of John Campbell, St. Thomas; C. A. Fleming, Queen Sound, and Geo. Munroe, Hamilton. These brethren are probably present in our Convention to-day. At a suitable time they will be introduced, and gladly heard regarding this welcome movement.

The somewhat vexed question of the Year-Book has been before the Board, and we have determined upon the following suggestion as a practical solution of the matter: That we gather and publish in one issue of the Missionary Intelligencer such statistics as may be desirable for preservation, and that this number be known as the Year-Book Number of said publication. In view of the fact that we are already at the expense of the publication of this magazine, and that such issue as is here contemplated will involve but little additional expense, and answer all practical purposes, we believe this to be a wise disposition of the subject. The Year-Book Committee is now at work gathering statistics for publication.

(For information concerning the Church Extension department and that of Negro Evangelization and education, you are referred to the reports of their respective secretaries, soon to be heard.)

At the organization of the Acting Board, January 3, R. M. Bishop, who had been for so many years its Chairman, feeling the burden of increasing years, declined re-election, and J. A. Lord was elected to that office. Not many weeks after, viz., on the 2nd of March, the news reached us from Florida, whither Bro. Bishop had gone to spend the winter, that God had called him to come up higher. Thus has gone out from our councils and toils, since we last met, this princely man, who, having been present at the organization of this Society forty-four years ago, has been, all through its history, one of its most devoted members, and for many years President of its Board, and whose record is that he was always present, and never late, at the meetings of the Board. This is the first anniversary of the Society from which he has been absent. Absent, did I say? Yes, in body absent; but as surely present in spirit with us to-day as that the redeemed are permitted to continue their interest in the affairs of God's kingdom on earth. Appropriate resolutions will be found recorded in the proceedings of the Acting Board relative to our brother's long, faithful and efficient services. It only remains for us to treasure up the worthy example of this honorable Christian life, to the end that we may be filled with the same spirit which made him faithful to his master until death.

A familiar figure in the meetings of this Convention for many years was that of G. T. Carpenter, Chancellor of Drake University, Des Moines, Iowa. A few weeks since he finished his earthly course with honor, and now rests from his labors, while his works do follow him. He will be greatly missed in the councils of his brethren.

Even while this report was being prepared, we were saddened to see the announcement of the death of R. W. Vanhook, at Birmingham, Ala. He was yet a young man and in the prime of a promising ministry. He was a true friend to this convention and to all the worthy enterprises of the church. Others besides these have during the year laid aside the toils of earth for the joys of the Saviour's presence. We mention the names of Geo. B. Farington, of New York; Mrs. H. W. Everest, of Kansas; Mrs. C. L. Loos, of Kentucky; Miss M. L. Payne and Mrs. N. B. Coates, of Missouri; and L. R. Norton, of Chicago, long a faithful, efficient preacher of the word. H. B. Davis, of Moberly, Mo., fell while cheering on the host, and Dr. W. J. Barbee, after a long ministry of the word, fell asleep in Jesus in a good old age. These all died in faith, and their memory is left us as a blessed heritage.

Turning our faces to the future, we have everything to inspire us to undertake great things for God. Our people are growing at a marvelous rate, both in numbers and missionary zeal. As a single but very expressive evidence of our growth, the Secretary has taken the pains to investigate as to the matter of church building. Reports have been received from only fifteen states. In these have been built during the past year, or are now in process of building, 314 houses of worship. Estimating these at the very low average of $2,000 each, for lot and house, we have $628,000. Beyond all question if returns were in from all of the remaining states and territories, we should find that, during the year, five hundred church houses have been built by our people, representing, at the lowest estimate, $1,000,000. And yet we are sometimes told that we are doing nothing!

Your Board is often pained to be compelled to say no to so many of the urgent calls for help coming from earnest and zealous brethren scattered abroad in the destitute places; and yet, when we reflect upon the true significance of these calls, we are convinced that they tell only the tale of present growth, and larger expansion to follow. Were there no calls for help, it would be evident that the aggressive evangelistic spirit which spread the gospel over the earth in the beginning, and which has made us the great host that we are, had departed.

Who would not be stirred with a holy Christian patriotism as we meet here, in the midst of the evidences of America's progress, greatness and prospects for the future? When we behold, as to-day in this great city, men out of every nation under Heaven flocking to learn of us in the great matters of civilization, it is time for us to begin to understand the work that the God of all the earth has assigned to us as the teachers of mankind.

Where in all the wide world is there a mission field, the soil of which is so rich and inviting to the good seed of the Kingdom, as the soil of the good and honest hearts of the patriots of free America? Where are problems so momentous for the progress of the race, as those to the solution of which the Lord calls the people of the United States?

To whom comes the call of God to gird themselves for the duties of the hour, with more force than to the great brotherhood which we are proud to represent? We as a body of people can do for the great civilization here being founded, and through it for the salvation of the race, a work which God has not committed to the hands of any other people. Instead, therefore, of our work's being done, there is a more widely felt need for us to-day than ever before. This will continue to widen till the children of God shall be one, and the simple gospel shall be preached to all nations of men. For these glorious consummations the times are ripening every day. Let us be alive to the demands of the hour, and play our part in the great drama of the Church United and the World Converted in a way that shall show that we are not merely repeating empty words when we sing:

"I love thy kingdom, Lord,
The house of thine abode
The church our blest Redeemer saved
With his own precious blood."

Respectfully submitted,

J. H. HARDIN, Cor. Sec. J. A. LORD, Chairman.

ADDENDA.

Our Missions.

Alabama.

Ira C. Mitchell resigned as our missionary at Birmingham, April 1st, after a stay of thirteen months, during which the church was much quickened in its various departments. Since Bro. Mitchell left, the Board has not seen its way clear to send anyone else to that field.

Arkansas.

November 12, James Sharp began work under the direction of the Board at Hot Springs. After one month's service he determined not to enter into a permanent engagement. T. J. Giddens has labored at this point several months during the year. The Board agreed to make an appropriation of $50.00 for three months of Bro. Giddens' time. He reports good prospects if financial support could be afforded to sustain the work. Since the rousing State Convention held in the summer at Fayetteville, indications are that Arkansas will do better in the line of organized missionary effort than ever before.

Georgia.

H. C. Combs has been in charge of the church in Macon, which was organized by the help of this society. Help was continued at this point till January 1st.

Bro. Combs has done a fine work there, and the church is growing slowly but permanently. The prospects ahead of the brethren in Georgia were hardly ever so bright as at present.

Illinois.

During the year, Geo. F. Hall has been secured by the Chicago City Mission Board to have charge of the work in North Chicago, and in his support we have assisted with a small sum. Arrangements were made last Spring to build, and a lot was secured for that purpose. The enterprise was postponed however, to wait till better times. The little congregation struggles on in hope, asking help from our Board, in order that they may firmly establish a church in that part of the great city.

Iowa.

J. M. Morris resigned at Sioux City, July 1st. During the year, he visited many churches in Iowa and other states; raised money for the purchase of a lot and to build. The property belonging to the congregation outside the city was sold, and with the proceeds and with what was raised, a church home will be secured. Bro. Morris did good substantial work under many disadvantages.

Idaho.

F. Walden, began work in Boise City, Idaho, the middle of June. He reports the work in a fairly prosperous condition. Sixteen have been added to the church since he began there. The church is harmonious and the outlook encouraging. A series of special meetings will be held soon.

Kansas.

B. Q. Denham, pastor, writes: "Our work at Kansas City, Kan., has been greatly prospered since our National Home Missionary Board has been helping us. During that time a condition of hopeless division and burdensome indebtedness has changed to a work of sweetest harmony, and with an indebtedness so reduced as to enable us to work along easily. During that time there have been 298 additions to our membership; our Sunday-school has enjoyed a growth of nearly two hundred per cent.; our C. W. B. M. has grown from a membership of 16 to 91; our Y. P. S. C. E. from one society, with 35 members, to three with a combined membership of over 300. The principal of our indebtedness has been reduced by $1,535.00. We have improved our property by $475.00, and have given $603.00 for missions. The total amount raised upon the home field is $5,073.15. All this work has been accomplished in the nineteen months ending September 30th, 1893. Without the help of your Board, we would have had nothing in Kansas City. The money has been a good investment, and we will soon more than repay, for ours is a thoroughly missionary church."

Louisiana.

S. P. Benbrook closed his labors as state evangelist for Louisiana November 1st. His efforts were fruitful as shown by his reports. Earnest calls have come to the Board for further help in that State. We have not been able to respond for lack of means.

Mississippi.

Jno. A. Stevens retired from the work of State Evangelist and became pastor at Chattanooga, Tenn. Several attempts have been made to secure a man for the work during the year. C. E. Moore was secured toward the middle of the year. He did good work but resigned after a short time, on account of ill health in his family. The work is moving forward and gaining ground in Mississippi, as all over the South.

Michigan.

The year just closed has been one of prosperity and progress for the Saginaw church. By means of the efforts of Bro. Scott, the citizens donated sufficient material to erect a tabernacle capable of seating over one thousand people, in which was held a successful meeting by H. A. Northcutt and the pastor. The tabernacle had to be taken down at the close of the meeting, but the lumber is kept to build, in the near future, a larger church building, which is very much needed. The outlook for the work in Saginaw is promising. Through the influence of Bro. Scott, our cause has been lifted from obscurity and given prominence among the churches of the city. His efforts have been ably seconded by the faithful and self-denying labors of the church. With a new church building provided, the church will be self-sustaining. The church gives liberally to all our missionary work.

The work at Kalamazoo is steadily gaining ground. The church has felt the financial depression very much, as many of its members work in shops, and have been thrown out of employment. But now the prospects are brighter than ever before. The church hopes to build a chapel next summer.

Minnesota.

W. W. Pew has been employed in the Northwest District of Minnesota, and has accomplished a good work. The Minnesota brethren ask the Board to consider favorably an enlargement of the work in that state. This we shall be glad to do at as early a date as the means may appear in sight.

The Sweedish Mission in the State of Minnesota closes its annual labor with the following result: Baptised, ten; received otherwise, two; removed to other places, nine; removed otherwise, three; membership at present, in Minneapolis, twenty-three; total membership throughout the state, seventy. Money collected for all purposes, $302.08, of which $100.00 was paid on minister's salary; $30.00 for traveling expenses, and $172.08 for Minneapolis mission. Sunday-school scholars, twenty-nine.

Massachusetts.

The work in the Boston mission has made a decided progress during the last year, and is going grandly on. They have added fifty-four souls during the year. All departments of the work are in good growing condition. The membership is growing spiritually. The young men are developing into strong workers.

The Somerville mission, which was started from the Boston church four years ago, is now a self-sustaining church. They doubled their membership last year, under the pastorate of Bro. Geo. T. Smart.

The Everett Mission, which they started a year ago, has sustained preaching, Sunday-school, and Christian Endeavor, in the Y. M. C. A. Hall, throughout the year. Through the Church Extension Board, they have secured a desisible lot. They have the plans and specifications for a building which they hope to erect this fall. This is a good plant, and will speedily develop into a strong church.

During the past year, also, the Christian Endeavor, of the Boston church has sustained Sunday-school and preaching service in Dorchester, another suburb of Boston. The school averages over one hundred pupils, and there is much interest in the gospel as preached.

The Boston church endeavor to make every edge cut. They need a little more money in this Eastern field, with which to multiply and strengthen the churches.

New York.

A. B. Phillips resigned his work at Green Point, Brooklyn, July 1. Since that time we have not felt able to continue our support of this mission.

North Carolina.

During the year, Winston church has had a net gain of fifteen, besides several resident additions to our number, holding membership elsewhere. During early spring, steps were taken to erect the main building, which resulted in completing the foundation before the panic. About $500.00 has been raised for this work and balance of debt on chapel, and $100.00 is in hand. The mortgage debt of $1,600, due Nov. 8, 1893, will be allowed more time upon payment of $250 interest, until the Church Extension Board can come to the rescue. The debt will then be adjusted, and a strong effort made to erect the main building, adding largely to the capacity of the chapel, which seats only one hundred. Building and general work will claim the special attention of the evangelist until the church is ready for use, when aggressive efforts will be made to reach many of the 20,000 people of the twin city, Winston-Salem.

Nebraska.

May 1st, Albert Schwartz was located with the church on Walnut Hills, Omaha, Neb. Of the work there Bro. Schwartz writes:

"The work at the Cynthia Christian Church is very much run down. Many things have tended to destroy the usefulness of the church. Many difficulties present themselves. However, the work is now gradually, yet slowly, taking on a more promising aspect. Three have been added to our membership by statement. The church now has a Sunday-school, a Y. P. S. C. E., and a Ladies' Aid Society. There are great possibilities for the work here, if it be patiently, prayerfully, persistently pushed for several months."

At Grand Island, Theo. Johnson was allowed a small sum for a very fruitful work. H. J. Kirschtein has continued with the church at Hastings, and they ask that another year's help be given.

O. C. Atwater, of Kearney, says: "During the year, there have been forty additions to the church. Quite a number of these, however, are non-residents. We rejoice greatly in souls saved. But the gain in financial strength is small. It is a matter of grief to faithful brethren that the Board finds it necessary, on account of the financial stringency, to withdraw aid from this church. The same causes operate here, and they are troubled as to the future. The debt on the house has been reduced from $800.00 to about $650.00.

New Mexico.

For lack of funds, the Board has been unable to prosecute the work in New Mexico as had been hoped for. Bro. J. C. Hay gave four months to the field. After spending two months at Roswell, reviving the church, providing for its legal incorporation, and the security of the property, and acquainting himself more accurately with the community and its needs, he found, and recommended to the Board, a pastor for Roswell. The Board has been unable to furnish its share of the salary, and the work, for the present, has been suspended, except as a few zealous disciples on the ground continue their labors.

New Mexico has hitherto been almost an unknown region to our Board. In order, therefore, to learn the number of brethren in important places, and the openings for labor, Bro. Hay explored Eddy, Albequorque, Las Cruces, Las Vegas and Maxwell City. At each of the last three places named he held a brief series of meetings. He introduced to the Maxwell City brethren our pastor at Trinidad, Col., Bro. A. Sanders, formerly of Kentucky. Trinidad is about 50 miles north of Maxwell City. In August, Bro. Sanders conducted a short protracted meeting at Maxwell City, resulting in four baptisms, and the organization of a church of seventeen members. In September he spent ten days and baptized six more. There are prospects of securing a house of worship soon. The place is new, in the midst of a promising farming district.

June 1st Brother Hay returned to the pastorate of the congregation at Pueblo, which he had served for eight years, previous to going to New Mexico. Without salary he is acting as District Secretary of the mountain district, until an evangelist can be sustained.

Oklahoma.

E. F. Boggess, Guthrie, writes:—"Enclosed please find report for 4th quarter of Missionary year at Guthrie. The church here is very thankful for the aid rendered them for the past three years. You found them a little band of thirty-nine, in a small rented room in the midst of a frontier people and hardly known. To-day, as you leave us, we are numerically the strongest people in the city, meeting in a house of our own, well-known among a people that have come from eastern homes, and we hope sufficiently able to stand alone; at least we are all willing to try. This church was the last in this city to receive missionary support, and we are glad to know we are the first to be declared strong enough to stand alone. We have enrolled during our short history nearly 400 names; many have gone, a few have died. At our last business meeting, the official board passed a resolution tendering a vote of thanks to the G. C. M. C. for their substantial aid rendered during the past three years. We will do all in our power to prove a self-supporting church, and will ever remember, with our offerings to the Board, the kindness received. May God greatly bless us in the future as he has in the past, is our prayer. The church here has called me for another year, and I will do all I can for the Board of Missions."

Walter L. Ross was employed as Missionary Pastor at Norman, May 1, 1893, since which time there have been ten additions. There is a Sunday-school, an Auxiliary to C. W. B. M., and a Ladies' Aid Society connected with this work. The financial stringency has done much to retard the work. As the people become more settled and money matters get easier, the outlook will be more hopeful for this work. Bro. Ross has resigned, and his place has not yet been filled.

At El Reno and Kingfisher, C. M. Sharpe has continued to push forward the work, occupying half the time at each place. The churches are both reported growing gradually. At the latter place, a house has been built during the year, and at the former preparations for one are going forward.

Ontario.

The work in London, Ontario, under care of T. L. Fowler, continues to be encouraging. The membership is composed largely of workingmen, many of whom, on account of the depression, have been lost to the church by being thrown out of employment and other causes, but, through the earnest activity of the church, the depleted ranks have been filled with new recruits. They have a valuable church property, but only $300.00 have been paid on it. They feel this burden very much, and are making an earnest effort to reduce the amount by several hundred dollars by the end of the year. If they can be helped, it will not be long before they can handle their indebtedness and be self-supporting.

Northwest District.

Of the work in the Northwest District, W. F. Cowden, writes:—"I am happy to report that our cause in this far Northwest still flourishes, and that its course is onward. Hitherto God has been our helper, and no backward step has been taken. Our progress has been particularly marked in our larger cities. In Seattle and Olympia, Brothers Dunlap and McCollum, by means of the Martin and Easton meeting, have added large numbers to our membership and have succeeded in bringing our cause into public notice as never before. In Tacoma, Bro. J. T. Eshelman of the First church, and Bro. C. B. Edgar of the Central both strong and faithful men, are rapidly lifting our cause into favorable esteem. Dr. J. M. Allen, in Spokane, has done a splendid work in allaying strife and commanding the respectful attention of thoughtful people to our plea. In Portland, discord and strife have given place to harmony, and a great forward movement has been secured by the voluntary disbanding of the Central church, and the incorporation of its membership with that of the First and Third churches, thus concentrating our working forces, greatly abridging our expenditures, and practically exemplifying our plea for the unity of the church. Indeed this has been a year of peace making, and the Spirit of love and harmony reigns throughout our Zion as never before.

Most of our churches have had pastoral care, and several have held quite successful meetings. New churches have been organized at Everett and Tacoma, Wash., at La Grande and Pendleton in Eastern Oregon, and at Caldwell, Volmer and Leland, Idaho. Houses of worship have been erected at Tacoma, at the Dalles, Grant's Pass and Tillamook, Oregon, and at Volmer, Idaho. The Washington and Oregon state convention was the largest and most enthusiastic we have ever held, and had it not been for this terrible financial depression, this year would have been signalized by great enlargement in all departments of church work. We have not been able to do all that was in our hearts and plans, but God has enabled us to do much beyond our fears, and, moreover, he has brought to us, out of our difficulties and struggles, a wonderful enlargement of spiritual life and energy, which is worth far more to his cause than silver and gold. Many weak churches, bravely struggling with burdens of debt incident to the inception of the work in new communities, and which would be burdensome even in ordinary times, are making heroic efforts to meet their obligations as they fall due. A notable example, and worthy of imitation, is the young and enterprising church at Waterville, in the Big Bend country, a country of quite recent settlement. Having a large building debt and no money, the brethren rented sixty acres of wheat land, plowed and sowed it, and are now reaping a bountiful harvest, the net proeeds of which are to be applied on their church debt, and this scheme, on a much larger scale, is to be repeated next year. Many of our people have cheerfully, though with a tear of regret, given up their cherished visit to the World's Fair, and to the loved ones in the dear old home in the east, simply that they might be able to give larger help to our struggling churches in this trying crisis. Such are God's own, and such are some of the precious fruits of this present distress.

During the year, missionary pastors have been supported by your board as follows: Bro. J. A. Holton at Boise City, to December 31st, followed by F. Walden, June 1st; W. Kellaway, at Cowallis, to June 30th; James F. Stewart, at East Portland, to June 1st; J. S. McCollum, at Olympia; R. E. Dunlap, at Seattle; C. B. Edgar, at Tacoma Central; F. D. Muse, at Whatcom, to June 15th; W. L. McCollough, at Waterville, from May 1st; J. B. Daisley, at Walla Walla, to May 15th, followed by C. P. Smith, from June 15th. These brethren have served faithfully, and their reports will show, we think, that these churches have made commendable progress.

Bro. Holton, of Boise City, inaugurated the work at Caldwell, and Bro. L. Rogers, in Northern Idaho, has done valuable work at Volmer and Leland, under our direction, but without compensation from the Board. Much preliminary work has also been done in Eastern Oregon, an important country, hitherto scarcely entered by us. Our work is constantly increasing in magnitude and importance. New and promising fields are pressing upon us, and crying for help, and, did the limits of this report permit, I would like to press upon the Board and the brotherhood the imperative needs and claims of this great and growing section of our national domain. "Great enlargement in men and means," must be the slogan of the hour, and let it ring everywhere throughout the borders of Zion.

As to my own work, three of the best working months of the year, November, December and January, were largely lost by my severe and protracted illness. For the other eight months to date, a brief summary is as follows: Visited and assisted forty-one churches and mission points. Attended the Washington and Oregon state conventions, and the Whitman county, Wash., co-operation and camp meeting. Held two short meetings. Organized two new churches. Delivered one hundred and eleven sermons and discourses. Received into the church by baptism, forty-four persons; otherwise, thirty-one—seventy-five in all. Collected for the General Board in cash, $783.94. Traveled 8,787 miles.

Your friend and brother, WM. F. COWDEN.

South Dakota.

The work in Sioux Falls, S. D., is in a very prosperous condition. There have been twenty-one additions to the church, during the past year, and but seven removals, leaving the present membership thirteen stronger than last year. The church has raised about five hundred dollars to pay on old debts, and secured a loan of one thousand dollars on the church building. The average attendance of the Sunday-school has made a substantial increase. The Y. P. S. C. E. has doubled both its active and associate memberships. The church, through its pastor, has organized another congregation about five miles out, and is supplying them with preaching every Sunday. The activity of the church is manifested in the usual lines of church work. Altogether, its present condition is very hopeful, and its prospects quite bright.

The Board employed G. W. Elliott, July 1, 1892, to take charge of the work at Ramona. Since that time to Oct. 1, 1893, fifteen months, he has organized five congregations, had 196 additions, organized two Sunday-schools, and two Y. P. S. C. E. Has built a $300.00 house of worship at Ramona, and one brother has entered the ministry from the field, and will preach at Pleasant Valley and Bangor. During this time this field has raised over $200.00 for missions.

Tennessee.

J. H Garvin retired from Sherman Heights, Chattanooga, May 1st. The church is now without a pastor. J. B. Briney retired from the work at Knoxville, April 1st, and was succeeded, June 1st, by J. B. Mayfield. Encouraging progress is being made at Knoxville, and we expect, ere long, to see one of the best churches in that city, to be found in the South.

Texas.

Concerning the work at Houston, J. C. Mason writes as follows:

A summary of the mission work at Houston, Tex., for the year ending September 30, 1893:

Number of members at the beginning of the year, 113; additions by letter and reclaimed, 46; from the denominations, 8; confessions and baptism, 17; total added, 71; loss by death, 1; removals, 44; total, 45; net gain, 26; present membership, 139.

Among the number added was a Congregational minister, who for more than a year had been conducting a mission in a destitute ward in the city.

J. W. Lowber began his work at Galveston September 1st. The prospects seem very flattering for the permanent establishment of our people there.

Utah.

The church in Salt Lake City has made substantial gains during the past year. As the result of B. F. Clay's trip east, nearly enough money in cash and good pledges was raised to pay for the lot. About $4,800 is owing on the lot, but about $3,000 in good pledges are on hand to meet this amount, leaving $1,800 unprovided for. August 1st, the church began to build a house of worship. Owing to so many men being thrown out of work, and nearly all building operations having ceased in the city, the brethren have been able to secure, for $6,000, a house that under ordinary circumstances would have cost them not less than $9,000. This house is nearly completed, and the congregation will be worshiping in it by November 1, 1893.

From January 1, 1893, to October 1, there have been thirty-two additions to the church. Of this number, eleven were by confession and baptism, and the remainder by letter.

The outlook for the future is brighter than any time since the mission was established. Only one cloud is seen in the sky. That is due to the financial depression that has overspread the whole country, but is doubly severe in all of the silver mining regions. The membership is poor, but they have done their utmost to carry the burdens. It is believed and hoped that the coming year will see a vastly improved condition in the cause in Salt Lake City.

Wisconsin.

M. B. Ryan writes: "The church in Milwaukee has just closed the most prosperous year in its history. A meeting by Brethren Morgans and Becknell in January, resulted in twenty-six additions to the membership. The total added during the year has been forty-three. We have lost by death, removal, etc., ten. The net increase is thirty-three. These include much good material, adding very materially to the working strength of the church. There has been raised and expended during the year, for all purposes, a total of $1,864.94. Of this amount, considerably over $100.00 was given to our various missionary organizations. The church feels very grateful to the G. C. M. C. for continued aid in its work. Had it not been for the financial crash, which struck our city with such disastrous violence, and affected every material interest unfavorably, the work would have been self-sustaining at the beginning of the present missionary year. The outlook for the work was never so encouraging as now."

West Virginia.

The cause in Charleston, W. Va., is thriving. Being the state capital and the most influential city in the state, it is important that we have the cause well established there. The church began about two years ago with about twenty members. Notwithstanding the unfavorable location of their house, the heavy indebtedness of the church, and other obstacles, they have grown to about sixty members. They expect soon to be self-supporting. J. W. McGarvey, Jr., their minister, continues with them by the appointment of the Board.

Chinese Mission.

The Chinese Mission in Los Angeles, Cal., is reported in a prosperous and promising condition.

Committee on Ways and Means.

A. P. Cobb presented the report of the Committee on Ways and Means, which was adopted:

Your Committee on Ways and Means respectfully desire to present the following report:

We recognize, through all the trials and triumphs of the past year, the guiding hand of our Heavenly Father, who restraineth the wrath of man, and causeth the residue thereof to praise Him.

In the largest and highest sense, we believe that all things work together for good to them that love God.

In greater heroism, in purer motives, in deeper consecration, is found the compensation for pecuniary loss through the financial depression of the year now closing.

Recommendations:

1. We heartily commend our General Secretary and his assistant in all their arduous labors, and recommend that they be left as untrammeled as possible in their wise planning for the work of the incoming year.

2. While thus expressing our utmost confidence in them, we deem it not inconsistent to recommend the most careful scrutiny of all proposed expenditures, to the end that the percentage of expenses may be kept at the minimum consistent with the efficient and successful prosecution of the work.

3. We recommend that, as rapidly as possible, we carry to completion the policy adopted at the Nashville Convention, respecting the liquidating of the Boston church debt.

4. We recommend that the Y. P. S. C. E. of our brotherhood be encouraged by all possible means to continue, so long as may be necessary, their liberality to the Salt Lake church.

5. We heartily commend the Board's eminently wise selection of a General Evangelist, and pledge to Bro. H. A. Northcutt our heartiest support and love.

6. We approve, in fullest measure, the able, heroic and successful labors of our General Superintendent for the Northwest, Bro. W. F. Cowden, believing that he is laying wisely the foundations on which shall rise a glorious edifice to the praise and honor of our Redeemer.

7. We recommend the adoption of the Board's plan of organizing the work into districts, under the supervision of assistant secretaries, in order to its greater efficiency.

8. We recognize, in the phenomenal growth of our cities, a providential indication and a providential opportunity.

We therefore recommend that, to the utmost of our ability, the cities be speedily seized and held for our blessed Lord.

9. In accordance with the Board's suggestion, we recommend that our Children's Day be changed from the first Saturday of December to Christmas.

10. We recommend the preparation of such tracts as may be helpful in disseminating the principles of Christianity among our foreign population.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Cobb, Chairman.

Committee on Year-Book.

G. A. Hoffmann, of Missouri, presented the report of the Committee on Year-Book as follows, which was adopted:

Your Committee on Year-Book beg leave to report:

1. In harmony with the instruction of this Convention last year, we have, by the assistance of S. J. Clarke and other brethren in Chicago, furnished a creditable exhibit, illustrating the history and progress of our people, for the World's Columbian Exhibition. We asked for and obtained from the General Board an appropriation of $100 for this exhibit. We learn that much more will be needed to reimburse Bro. Clark for his outlay.

2. We have encouraged State Secretaries to gather annual statistics. Several states now publish statistics annually with the state minutes.

3. We find that the year-books we have published hitherto have been at a loss to the publishers. We therefore accept, with thanks, the offer of the General Board to publish statistics in one monthly issue of the Missionary Intelligencer.

4. We can not hope to gather full statistics in all the states through their State Secretaries. We therefore ask for an appropriation of not less than $200 to enable one of our members to gather and complete statistics for publication.

5. We further suggest that it may be wise to reconstruct the committee—and therefore we ask to be discharged, so that a new committee may be appointed.

G. A. HOFFMANN, R. MOFFETT,
HIRAM WOODS, J. W. ALLEN.
Committee.

S. M. Jefferson presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the General Christian Missionary Convention be requested to appoint a committee of seven, of which A. McLean shall be Chairman, to gather and publish educational statistics—to create and foster educational interests among the Disciples of Christ, and prepare for the presentation of these interests at the next General Convention.

The Chair announced the Committee as follows: A. McLean, S. M. Jefferson, A. M. Hall, R. T. Mathews, H. O. Breeden, H. L. Willett, E. B. Wakefield.

Committee on Time and Place of Next Meeting.

The Committee on Time and Place of Next Meeting reported, through J. H. Garrison, as follows, which was adopted:

Your Committee on Time and Place, would report as follows: We have received applications for the next Convention from Omaha, Nebraska; St. Louis, Missouri; Waco, Texas, and Richmond, Virginia. Having duly considered the claims of each of these places, your Committee have decided to recommend Richmond, Virginia, as the place of next Convention, and at the date fixed by the constitution. Respectfully submitted,

J. H. GARRISON, J. B. CARY,
F. N. CALVIN. Committee.

Committee on Church Extension.

F. M. Rains offered the report of the Committee on Church Extension, which was adopted, as follows:

Your Committee on Church Extension Fund submit the following:

1. We congratulate the Convention upon the constant growth of this Fund, and upon the growing confidence in this young but vigorous enterprise. The tireless energy of the Corresponding Secretary, G. W. Muckley, commands our hearty praise; and we commend the Board of Church Extension upon its wise and efficient management.

2. We endorse the action of the Board in granting a few large loans to weak churches in large cities; but owing to the great demand made upon the Fund from all sections of the country, we urge great caution in granting such loans in the future.

3. We recommend that City Mission Boards, District and State Societies co-operate with the Board of Church Extension in securing full information as to the needs and worthiness of applicants, that loans may be made to the best advantage.

4. We recommend that city and district Boards which aid needy churches in their immediate locality, be urged to arrange with the churches aided, so that at least twenty-five per cent. of their gifts to such churches may be paid into the treasury of the Board of Church Extension Fund within five years, without interest, that these gifts may go on, in time to come, helping homeless churches.

5. We recommend that the Board of Church Extension Fund publish a quarterly of its own, devoted entirely to this interest, instead of using a part of the Missionary Intelligencer, as at present.

6. The vigorous action of the Board in securing lots for churches in county-seats in the Cherokee Strip, recently opened to settlement, is worthy of special commendation.

F. M. RAINS, J. S. SWEENEY,
F. M. DRAKE, B. F. CLAY,
T. E. CRAMBLET, Committee.

Committee on City Evangelization.

J. W. Allen, of Chicago, presented the report of the Committee on City Evangelization:

For the first time in its history the G. C. M. C. has named a Committee on City Evangelization.

It marks the beginning of a new era in our history. Heretofore we have addressed ourselves to the restoration of primitive Christianity in its faith, its ordinances and its life. Now, it would seem, we are about to adopt its methods of conquest and supremacy. It was in the great cities of the Roman Empire that the apostles of Christ first unfurled the banner of the cross. Jerusalem, Antioch, Ephesus, Corinth, Rome were the scenes of their struggles and triumphs and from these centers of commercial, political and social influence they moved to the conquest of the world.

There are no fields of evangelization so inviting, none so needy, as the cities. The future of our country and of our civilization is the future of our cities, and whatever reasons impel to evangelization, impel with added force to the evangelization of the cities.

We believe that the time has now came in the history of our religious movement, when we should address ourselves as never before to the work of city evangelization. The past has been a necessary preparation for it, and we now have the men and the means so indispensible to its successful prosecution. Your Committee do, therefore, commend the wisdom of the Executive Board in asking that the Convention now take up this work with earnestness and determination, and beg leave to make the following recommendations:

1. That in all cities where we have two or more congregations, such congregations be encouraged to form a Board of City Missions, whose work it shall be to plant and foster mission Sunday-schools and mission churches.

2. That the Corresponding Secretary and Assistant Corresponding Secretary of this Convention be instructed to render all needed assistance in the formation of such Boards of City Missions, and when formed, to co-operate with them as far as practicable in planting and fostering missions in the cities.

3. That financial assistance be rendered such missions, whenever, in the judgment of the Executive Board, such assistance may be wisely bestowed.

J. W. ALLEN, C. W. SHELTON,
JNO. R. TOLAR, S. L. DARSIE,
F. E. UDELL, Committee.

Committee on New Missions.

R. Moffett presented the report of the Committee on New Missions. Adopted.

Your Committee on New Missions have had the subject under consideration, and beg leave to report, recommending:

1. That the policy that has been pursued hitherto be continued, viz: To undertake and maintain missions in states and territories where our brethren are few in numbers and too weak to carry forward an efficient missionary work, and exercise a wise caution not to undertake more than can be carried forward to the best success.

2. The labors of our general evangelist in the far northwest give abundant proof of the value of such a worker. We, therefore, recommend that one or more general evangelists be employed to give his time to preaching, and especially to laying foundations for the future prosperity of large areas of our new and unoccupied territory.

3. The Corresponding Secretary has laid before us letters pleading most earnestly for help to sustain missionary pastors in Chino, Cal.; Fremont, Neb.; Cheyenne, Wy.; St. Paul, Minn.; Tecumseh, Ok.; Aberdeen, S. D.; New Haven, Conn.; Rockford, Ill.; Jacksonville, Lakeworth and DeLand, Fla.; Topeka, Kan.; Halifax, N. S.; El Paso, Houston and San Antonio, Tex.; and for the support of evangelists in Louisiana, Alabama and Minnesota. Some of these have been assisted in years past. Some of them owe their existence to our fostering care. We recommend that the Board help the most important of these places as they may have means and opportunity; and where any of the churches which were once our missions stand in need of special help to enable them to pass successfully a crisis, we recommend that help be granted.

4. We do not think it wise to abandon any promising mission, so long as help is needed to bring it to self-sustaining ground. We, therefore, recommend that all our present missions which promise success shall not be abandoned for new fields. We are aware that the present indebtedness of the Board makes it impossible to undertake much new work for several months to come; but we hope that before many months the Board will be able to answer favorably to many, if not all, of these earnest calls.

WM. F. COWDEN, N. S. HAYNES,
R. MOFFETT, J. S. STEVENS,
H. L. WILLETT, Committee.

Foreign Populations in America.

W. J. Lhamon presented the report on Foreign Populations in America, which was adopted, as follows:

The foreign population of the United States, has not varied two per cent. in the last thirty years. The average per cent. for that time is 14.18. In 1890 we had 9,249,547 foreigners. For social and religious estimates, the children of the first generation must be included. This brings our actual foreign population up to about 21,000,000, or approximately 33 per cent. of the whole. Nearly three millions of these are Germans; nearly two millions are Irish; above one million are English and Welsh; nearly a million are from Canada and Newfoundland, and nearly a million from Norway, Sweden and Denmark. The rest are from every other nation under heaven. There are only 106,688 Chinese, according to the census of 1890, and the increase of the Chinese from 1880 to 1890 was only 2.13 per cent., while that of the Poles was 203.64 per cent.; that of the Italians, was 312.80; that of the Australians, 218.83; that of the Russians, 411.29; and that of the Hungarians, 441.69.

New York has the largest foreign population of any state, containing 1,571,000. Pennsylvania comes next with 845,000; Illinois with 842,000 is a close rival to Pennsylvania: Massachusetts has 657,000; Michigan, 543,000; Wisconsin, 519,000; Minnesota, 467,000; Ohio, 459,000. These figures stand for the people born in other lands. Since the actual foreign population includes the children of the first generation, these figures must be doubled, and to that 25 per cent. added. It will be noted that the states having the leading cities have the largest foreign populations. Nearly half of all our foreigners, precisely 44.13 per cent., are in cities having a population of 25,000 or more. New York city has a foreign population, including children of the first generation, of 1,500,000 in round numbers. Chicago of about 1,000,000; Philadelphia of 600,000; Boston of 350,000; St. Louis of 260,000. "New York, Philadelphia, Chicago and San Francisco each has residents from Africa, Asia, Atlantic Islands, Australia, Austria, Belgium, Bohemia, Canada, New Brunswick, Newfoundland, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, British America, Central America, China, Cuba, Denmark, Europe (not specified), France, Baden, Bavaria, Brunswick, Hamburg, Hanover, Hessen, Lubeck, Mecklenburg, Nassua, Prussia (not specified), Saxony, Weimar, Wurtemburg, Germany (not specified), Gibralter, England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Greece, Greenland, Holland, Hungary, India, Italy, Japan, Luxemburg, Malta, Mexico, Norway, Pacific Islands, Poland, Portugal, Russia, Sandwich Islands, South America, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey and the West Indies." Such is the composition of our foreign populations.

All the great nations have numerous representatives in every one of our states and territories. The Canadians are strongest in Massachusetts and Michigan. The Germans, Irish, English and Scotch are most numerous in the North Atlantic and North Central sections. Most of the Scandinavians are in four states—Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin and Minnesota. Most of the Chinese are in California. It is reported that there are a million French Catholic Canadians in New England, and twenty thousand in the single city of Lowell, Mass. New England is becoming New France, and our original English, puritan protestantism is being transplaced by the French type of Roman Catholicism.

The general character of our immigrants of recent years is not reassuring. Many are ignorant and impoverished, and an undue proportion are criminal.

Thousands look upon government as tyranny, and mistake license for liberty. Vast numbers of them are Christless, or possessed only of the spiritless religious forms of the state churches from which they came.

Work among these people is not hopeless. The Baptists, Congregationalists, and Methodists have successful missions among them. Yet the work is only begun. God sends them to our shores and they are practically unevangelized.

It is estimated that in 1900 there will be 43,000,000 of foreigners among us. They bid fair to rule the cities by the way of the slums, and the cities to rule the nation. The responsibility is great and we cannot escape it. The Lord himself forces the issue. He lays them at our doors, and if we do not lift them up they will drag us down. As with pagan peoples, so with all that are Christless; we must Christianize them or they will paganize us.

Our General Board has not a single successful mission among our foreign populations. We have not one flourishing congregation. We have not the means or the men to justify immediate hope. Our past efforts have been limited, and our success meager.

During the last year, your General Board has supported C. A. Holmgren in a work among the Scandinavians in Minnesota, with headquarters and a feeble church in Minneapolis. The work has suffered for lack of funds to meet incidental expenses. The state society of Minnesota has promised to assist in this matter for the coming year.

We recommend, therefore, the continuance of the Swedish Mission in Minnesota. Since it is our only mission among foreign populations, every possible means should be used for its success. We need the stimulus of one marked success among foreign populations.

Second. We recommend to the General Board the planting of missions among the foreign populations of our cities just as rapidly as possible, calling upon our well established city churches to assist them in the work.

Third. We recommend that this Convention appoint a committee of one to prepare, within the year, a memorandum of facts and statistics concerning our foreign populations as relating to our duty of evangelization, and to have them published in our journals.

We endorse the recommendation of the Committee on Ways and Means regarding tracts in foreign languages for foreign peoples.

Respectfully submitted,

W. J. LHAMON, R. T. MATHEWS,
C. S. LUCAS, E. J. LAMPTON.
Committee.

Committee on Negro Education and Evangelization.

The Committee on Negro Education and Evangelization reported through M. B. Ryan, as follows:

We recognize with pleasure the evident growth of interest throughout our brotherhood in the cause of Negro Education and Evangelization; a growth particularly noticeable in the south, the home of the Negro, and manifested by the increased contributions to the work during the year—the amount raised, $7,000, being about double that raised last year.

We appreciate the readiness and desire of the colored brethren, as expressed in their state conventions and other assemblies, to co-operate with us in this work; and we assure them of our hearty willingness to join with them in the effort to uplift and save their race.

We believe this work to be second in importance to none in which we are engaged, and that it ought to have an honored and conspicuous place in the thought and effort of our brotherhood. And we, therefore, recommend that it be recognized by our preachers in special sermons, and by our Sunday-schools and Young People's Societies in special services. We further recommend that every church in our brotherhood take a collection for the Negro Education and Evangelization Fund on the first Lord's day in November in each year, or give the work a distinct place among the stated collections, or in the division of funds for missionary purposes.

We recommend that donations of second-hand clothing be forwarded, prepaid, to the Southern Christian Institute, at Edwards, Miss. The income to this Institution, from the sale of such clothing, last year amounted to $417.00.

We further recommend that donations of useful books be sent to the school at Louisville, Ky., and to the Southern Christian Institute at Edwards, Miss., correspondence relative to the same to be addressed to A. J. Thomson, Louisville, Ky., and J. B. Lehman, Edwards, Miss., respectively.

We note, with pleasure, that the Colored Christian Convention is about to appoint a general evangelist among the colored people, and that this work has received the endorsement of the C. W. B. M., with the assurance of financial aid; and we recommend that this convention express its sympathy with this measure, and pledge its aid in any way practicable.

We recognize, in the increased receipts and the general growth of the work in efficiency and fruitfulness, the wisdom of the Board in employing Bro. C. C. Smith in the capacity of Secretary; and we heartily commend Bro. Smith to the continued confidence and the hearty co-operation of the entire brotherhood.

We recognize, and desire to heartily to commend, the wisdom and efficiency of Brother A. J. Thomson, and Brother and Sister J. B. Lehman, and their co-laborers, the instructors in our schools at Louisville, Ky., and Edwards, Miss.; and we assure them of our continued sympathy and prayers in their arduous labors.

Committee on Ontario Co-operation.

J. H. Hardin, from the Committee on Co-operation with the brethren of Ontario, reported as follows:

Your Committee appointed to confer with our brethren from the Annual Co-operation Meeting of our people in Ontario, beg leave to report:

1. That we have met the two members of their committee present, and have held, with them, a most delightful and satisfactory conference. Our hearts are cheered by the reports they bring, of the fidelity of the churches of that province to the simple gospel of Christ, and of their desire to co-operate for its still wider dissemination.

2. We have assured these brethren that it will give us nothing but joy for their Co-operation, and the brethren of the province, to place themselves in the same relationship with this convention, as that now sustained by the various states in this country. They will report to their next convention, when, we are led to hope, suitable action will be taken fully to effect this connection.

3. We recommend that these brethren be introduced to this convention, and asked to speak to us of the Lord's work in their country.

J. H. HARDIN, B. B. TYLER,
A. P. COBB, Committee.

Mrs. Baily, of Xenia, O., was presented to the Convention, bearing greetings from the General Convention of the Colored Brethren, recently held at Xenia, O. On motion, her communication, which was as follows, was ordered filed:

At the meeting of the Colored Christian Church at Xenia, O., Aug. 16, 1893, the following resolutions were passed:

"Resolved, That we co-opererate with our white C. W. B. M. in all missionary work, and that we send an evangelist in the field to work for the elevation of our race.

"Resolved, That we send Sister C. S. Baily as delegate to Chicago, to solicit aid from our white sisters and brethren at the convention, to enable us in supporting an evangelist, and in educating young men in our faith for the ministry."

Having been elected delegate to your honorable body, on behalf of those by whom I am sent I make the following plea for charity:

1. The colored people, in order to develop intellectually, morally, financially and religiously, must be educated, and need an educated ministry to guide and teach them. Ignorance being the basis of all superstition and idolatry, it behooves us to obtain knowledge at all costs. The Negro having been liberated from a bondage of more than 240 years, without a dollar, is unable to bear his part of the expense in providing such an education as is required to upbuild the race, and bespeaks the charity and sympathy of the Christian Church in his behalf. The progress of the colored man since his liberation, in the last 28 years, shows that he is not behind others; and where upon the face of the globe have any other people shown the eager activity for knowledge as he? True, it may be said that his environment was such that he could not do otherwise, and to survive he needs must progress or be crushed; still, others have not made such sacrifices and progress as he. The benevolence of our white friends has founded many colleges for the race, as Fisk, Central Tennessee, Rogers, Williams, Lincoln, Berea, and others, but they are not of us, and colleges for colored Disciples are few and far between.

The needs of an educated ministry demand institutions for the education of those who are to be our leaders in the journey from ignorance, vice and sin to a higher plane of life and morality, and our financial condition does not allow us to found them.

As it is our earnest desire to have prosperous missions, large and self-supporting congregations, and large attendance at our church service, it is necessary, says Brother Myrh, "to put brains in the pulpit."

Since we have but two (2) institutions "The Bible School at Louisville, Ky.," and "The Southern Christian Institute at Edwards, Miss.," to do this work, it is vain to believe that they are equal to the task imposed upon them, for they are young and weak financially. Still, the teachers in these schools are doing all that lies in their power to succeed. We ought to have more schools of this character doing the Master's work, and may the day soon come for the founding of more of the same kind.

Our present needs, in view of our condition, may be enumerated as follows:

1st. Good Christian schools for training ministers and teachers in OUR faith.

2nd. Evangelists to do general work, organize churches, organize boards, and raise money and build churches.

Report on Memorial of Certain Brethren.

J. W. McGarvey sent the report of the Standing Committee appointed last year on the Memorial of Certain Brethren, presented at the Nashville Convention. The report was as follows:

Your Committee, to whom was referred the Memorial read before the Convention in Nashville a year ago, by Bro. C. M. Wilmeth, and signed by himself and several others, beg leave to report as follows:

At the request of Bro. Wilmeth, who had hurriedly composed the memorial, our Chairman, Bro. J. W. McGarvey, returned it to him, that after more mature consideration, and consultation with the other remonstrants, he might present it in a more satisfactory form. Our Chairman expected, on receiving it in its perfect form, to write a response and send it around to the other members of the Committee for amendment or approval; but up to September 13th, the date of our latest communication from him, he had not received it. We therefore suggest that your committee be discharged from further consideration of the subject.

The Convention then resolved itself into a of the Foreign Society, C. W. B. M. and G. C. M. C.

JOINT SESSION

Committee on Unification of Our Work.

R. Moffett, from a Standing Committee on Unification of Our Work, presented a report as follows:

The undersigned, Joint Committee appointed one year ago "to devise the best plan for consummating the union of the General Christian Missionary Convention and the Foreign Christian Missionary Society, and to ascertain what constitutional changes are involved, and report the same to the respective Boards of these Societies, and through them to the Convention for final action," beg leave to report that we have failed to bring the results of our deliberations to the notice and consideration of the two Boards as contemplated by the Nashville Convention. We, therefore, ask to be continued one year. Meanwhile, we submit a constitution which we think will successfully effect the desired union, and ask that this constitution be printed with the minutes of this meeting, and that it be brought before the next annual convention of each Association; and that this be regarded as the constitutional notice to each Association that the changes proposed, affecting their respective constitutions, will be called up at the next annual convention.

R. Moffett, J. H. Garrison,
J. Z. Tyler, H. O. Breeden,
A. M. Atkinson, Committee.

CONSTITUTION.

Article 1. This Association shall be called The American Christian Missionary Society, and shall be the legal successor of the General Christian Missionary Convention and the Foreign Christian Missionary Society.

Art. II. Its object shall be the spread of the gospel of Christ in this and other lands.

Art. III. Its membership shall consist of Patrons, Life Directors, Annual Members, Life Members, and Delegates.

(a.) Any member of the Church of Christ may become an annual member by the payment of ten dollars, and a life member by the payment of fifty dollars; a life director by the payment of one hundred dollars, and a patron by the payment of five hundred dollars. Life members of the Foreign Christian Missionary Society shall be enrolled as life directors, and life directors as patrons. Any Church, Sunday-school, Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, or other religious association, may, by a delegate, have the privilege of membership under any of these designations, for ten years from making the first payment, or may constitute any member of the Church of Christ a member, director or patron.

(b.) Any state missionary association may be represented by one delegate, and for any 5,000 Disciples, and major fraction thereof, may have an additional delegate.

(c.) All members of the Church of Christ who may attend the Annual Convention, shall be entitled to participate in its deliberations, but only members shall be entitled to vote.

Art. IV. The officers of the Society shall be a President, two Vice-Presidents, two Recording Secretaries, and one Secretary of the Treasury, who shall also be Auditor, all of whom shall be elected annually by the Annual Convention, and commence their term of office at the adjournment of the Annual Convention.

ART. V. There shall be a General Board, consisting of the officers, patrons, Life Directors, Presidents and Corresponding Secretaries of the Department Boards, and Presidents and Corresponding Secretaries of State Societies, ten of whom shall constitute a quorum. The President and Recording Secretaries of the Society shall fill these offices for the General Board. The General Board shall hold a meeting immediately after the close of the Annual Convention, at which meeting shall be considered the execution of the purposes and plans of the Annual Convention, and such details as may be necessary to the harmonious co-operation of all departments of the work. The General Board shall also hold a meeting the day before the first day of the Annual Convention, of which notice shall be given in two or more weekly religious journals of general circulation among the Disciples of Christ. At this meeting they shall have annual reports from the several Boards, and consider such business as they may deem advisible to be brought to the notice of the Annual Convention. The President shall have the power to call and make provision for the meetings of the General Board.

ART. VI. There shall be four departments of the work: 1. For Foreign Missions. 2. For Home Missions. 3. For Church Extension. 4. For Negro Education. For each department the Annual Convention shall annually choose a Board, consisting of nine members, and to be known respectively as the Board of Foreign Missions, the Board of Home Missions, the Board of Church Extension, and the Board of Negro Education, and shall hold office until November 1. The Board of Home Missions may include in that department the publication and distribution of tracts, and the support of disabled and superannuated ministers.

(2.) Each Board shall have supervision of its own department, subject to revision by the Annual Convention, and shall make rules for its own government, elect its own Chairman, Clerk, Corresponding Secretary, and Treasurer, and appoint such other agents as they may deem necessary to the proper administration of the department, and report annually to the General Board, or Annual Convention, or to both, as the Society may direct.

(3.) The Treasurer of each Board shall make report to the Secretary of the Treasury, ten days before the first session of the Annual Convention; and the Secretary of the Treasury shall audit these reports and accounts, and shall make full report of the funds of all the departments at the Annual Convention. In all legal proceedings, the Secretary of the Treasury shall be regarded as the Treasurer of the Society.

ART. VII. The headquarters of this Society shall be at Cincinnati, O., but the Boards of any one of the several departments may be chosen with a view to locating the headquarters of that Board in any other city; and a Board once located, the headquarters shall not be removed to another city except by a two-thirds vote of the Annual Convention.

ART. VIII. The Annual Convention of this Society shall be held in Cincinnati, O., on Tuesday, following the third Lord's day in October, or at such other time and place as may have been agreed upon at the last Annual Convention. In case of necessity, the President may, with the advice and consent of the several Corresponding Secretaries, change both time and place of the Annual Convention. The Corresponding Secretaries of the several Boards shall have charge of program and necessary arrangements for the Annual Convention.

ART. IX. This constitution may be altered or amended by a two-thirds vote at any Annual Convention, provided, a year's notice of the proposed change shall have been given, or the General Board, at its last meeting, shall have recommended the change.

Committee on Obituaries.

The Committees on Obituaries of the three Boards read their reports. Mrs. J. H. Smart for the Woman's Board; A. J. Bush for the Foreign Board; W. J. Loos, of Kentucky, read the report from the Committee of the General Convention as follows:

It has been the custom of this Convention from the beginning, to make mention at each annual meeting of those who have passed over during the preceding year, and while the list reported to your Committee by the Corresponding Secretary is not large, it is remarkable because of the prominence of most of those who have fallen.

R. M. Bishop, a prince among men, an Ex-Mayor of the city of his adoption, an Ex-Governor of the great state of Ohio, the successor of Alexander Campbell in the presidency of this society, an elder of the Central Church in Cincinnati for many years, and up to the time of his death Curator of Kentucky University; the promoter of liberal education, the friend of preachers and the loving, helpful Christian benefactor of all the distressed who came in his way. He was one of the few men eminently successful in business, and in the affairs of state, who was never too busy to be about his Master's business. The disciples have enrolled no name on their lists more eminently useful, more honored or more beloved. Of course he died in fullest assurance of a blissful immortality. Providing the fullest and most minute details of his funeral services, full of years and full of honors, he passed on to his reward. In many respects "We shall not see his like again."

G. T. Carpenter, of Iowa, preacher of the gospel, a Christian teacher of youth, Chancellor of Drake University, a man of faith, and pre-eminently a man of work. If it be true that the world's moral uplifting and regeneration await the teacher, then indeed was the life of Bro. Carpenter spent in the noblest calling among men. He was a patient sufferer for many years. His death was peaceful and triumphant.

R. W. Vanhook, a comparatively young man, passed away in the very midst of his usefulness, but he lived long enough to make his name widely known among all those who love the ancient gospel, and a pure life in the ministry.

G. B. Farrington, of Brooklyn, was a business man, a man richly endowed by nature as well as by grace. His voice, we think, was never heard in the councils of this convention, but his counsel was freely given, and his name was enrolled among the liberal contributors. He will be greatly missed, not only here, but especially in the church in Brooklyn, which he loved so well.

L. R. Norton, a well-known preacher of the gospel, after years of sickness and patient waiting has gone to his rest. Multitudes of those brought to Christ through his ministry will say of him: "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."

H. B. Davis, pastor of the Church at Moberly, Mo., a man of fine natural ability, of liberal education, of large culture, a preacher of great power, a pastor well beloved, passed away in the midst of his greatest usefulness, and just at the time when he was bringing to completion the crowning work of his life, the magnificent house of worship at Moberly. He was a man pure in heart and most discreet in life. A good husband, a tender father, a loving friend, in a word a noble Christian man. He fell asleep in Jesus. He rests from his labors and his works do follow.

Dr. W. J. Barbee, who presided at the communion service on Sunday afternoon, at our convention last October, in Nashville, passed to his heavenly reward in about one week after the adjournment of that convention. He was a cultured, scholarly Christian gentleman, a versatile writer, and an earnest preacher of Christ's gospel.

While the Christian women in our churches, since the organization of the C. W. B. M., have not been so prominent in our convention as formerly, still we note them as co-workers, and drop a tear to their memory when any of them fall in death.

Among those who have passed away during the past year, are Mrs. H. W. Everest, wife of Chancellor Everest; Mrs. N. B. Coates, of Moberly, Mo.; Miss M. Lou Payne, of Kansas City, Mo.; Mrs. Chas. L. Loos, of Lexington, wife of President C. L. Loos, of Kentucky University. To our bereaved brothers Loos and Everest, this convention extends earnest Christian sympathy.

T. P. HALEY, J. B. JOHNSON,
W. J. LOOS, T. T. HOLTON.
Committee.

Bro. Chas. Carlton, of Texas, was introduced as one who was in the first convention of the G. C. M. C., held in Cincinnati in 1849. He spoke of that convention, its members and its work, and then dismissed the convention with prayer.

THURSDAY EVENING.

A. J. Bush led the devotional exercises, after which President Wm. R. Harper spoke briefly to the convention, on Higher Education for the Ministry.

The address of the evening was delivered by B. B. Tyler, on "The Union of Believers and Evangelization of the World."

A conference on Church Extension was then led by G. W. Muckley, and participated in by Gen. F. M. Drake, on "The Business Side of Church Extension"; A. I. Myhr on "What Can the Extension Board do for the South?" Bayard Craig, of California, on "Church Extension and City Evangelization"; G. L. Brokaw, Iowa, on "Church Extension and the State Board"; C. C. Smith, Ohio, on "The Relation of the Board of Negro Evangelization and Church Extension"; Miss Lois White, of Indiana, on "Church Extension and the Christian Woman's Board of Missions"; Benj. L. Smith, of Kansas, on "The Duty of the Preachers to Church Extension"; A. McLean, on "The Church Extension Map"; E. B. Ware, on "Right Beginnings in Business Methods and Church Extension"; George

Darsie, of Kentucky, on "The New Departure"; J. H. Hardin, on "Church Extension and Home Missions"; J. H. Garrison, of Missouri, on "Church Extension and the Opening of the Cherokee Strip."

After which an offering was made for Church Extension, amounting to $1,500.

The benediction was pronounced by Jabez Hall.

FRIDAY MORNING.

J. H. Wright, of Iowa, led the devotional exercises.

The report of the Board was adopted as a whole.

The minutes were read and approved.

The Convention was addressed briefly, at the call of the Chair, by J. E. Pickett, of Kansas; C. W. Poole, of Wisconsin; J. M. Vawter, of Illinois; David Walk, of Indiana.

Committee on Resolutions.

The Committee on Resolutions reported, through J. A. Lord, as follows:

WHEREAS, the saloon is a foe to the church, the home, and the state, and one of the most serious hindrances to the successful evangelization of our cities; and,

WHEREAS, license, high or low, fails to suppress the liquor traffic; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we favor constitutional and statutory prohibition in state and nation, and pledge ourselves to do whatever we can, as citizens and Christians, to sweep this iniquitous business from our land.

We tender our thanks to the pastor and members of the Central church for their kindness in the entertainment of this convention, and to all our preachers and churches in Chicago for courtesies rendered.

WHEREAS, the effort to continentalize our Christian Lord's day, by opening the gates of the World's Fair on that day, has signally failed;

Resolved, That we rejoice in this triumph of Christian sentiment, and urge upon our pulpit and press to maintain an uncompromising attitude on this question, which involves not only the sacredness of the Lord's day, but the authority of the Lord himself. J. A. LORD, J. J. MORGAN,
Committee.

J. H. Hardin moved that the Acting Board be authorized to take steps to join with other religious bodies to petition the rulers of the earth in favor of peace throughout the world. Voted.

Christian Endeavor.

J. Z. Tyler conducted the Christian Endeavor session of the Convention; and as National Superintendent of Christian Endeavor, presented his report, as follows:

The Christian Endeavor idea has found congenial soil among the Disciples of Christ. Its exaltation of the personal Christ, its definite pledge to make his will supreme in each life, its emphasis of duty rather than dogma, and its necessary and manifest tendancy to heal existing divisions among believers, have commended it to the people who have no creed but Christ, and have made the union of believers in him the conspicuous point in their plea. We have given the movement a cordial welcome, and have adopted its methods, without modification, as admirably adapted to the development of our young people in the Christian life, and their systematic training in service to Christ. The little machinery we have was devised simply to facilitate its spread among our churches, and to direct its untrained energies into the channels of our general enterprises. In each state where our people are numerous we have a State Superintendent, appointed by our State Board of Missions, and in those states where we are few they are grouped under a superintendent appointed by the National Superintendent, after consultation with leading brethren in that section of our country. By action had at our last General Missionary Convention, one year ago in Nashville, the Acting Board of the G. C. M. C. was empowered to appoint annually a National Superintendent of Christian Endeavor, whose duties are (1) to encourage the Christian Endeavor movement among us, to explain its principles, gather statistics, and other desirable information concerning the societies in our churches; and (2) to aid all our missionary secretaries in distributing missionary intelligence, and in gathering funds for missionary work. This National Superintendent receives no financial remuneration for his services, but is reimbursed for all necessary expenses incurred in the prosecution of his work. This simple arrangement forms a direct connection between all our societies on the one hand, and all the agencies of our co-operative church work on the other. It opens channels of usefulness for our young people, while it is training them into a familiarity with the importance and the methods of all our missionary enterprises.

Through recent and extensive correspondence with our State Superintendents, I am enabled to present the following statistical information concerning the societies in our churches; giving the state, the name of the State Superintendent, the number of societies reported one year ago by W. H. McClain, then National Superintendent, and the number reported now:

* Gain. † Loss.

From the nature of Christian Endeavor it is impossible to make a definite and complete report of what has been accomplished by our societies during the year. Organized in the local churches to work in and for them, the record of the achievements of these churches contains a large part of the successes of the societies. The society is tributary to the church, and pours its wealth of service into her channels, so that, from the sum total of the church's offering of service and money, one can no more identify, compute and classify that which has been done by the societies than he could stand at the mouth of the great Mississippi and distinguish the waters of the Ohio or the Missouri. It should be remembered, too, that the raising of money is not the primary object of Christian Endeavor. The society is rather a gymnasium, to develop the latent spiritual powers of its members, and to train them for intelligent and efficient service as members of the local church. A few brief extracts from the reports of our State

Superintendents may best give us a general view of the activities of our young people, and of the varied character of the service they are rendering.

The superintendent for Indiana, E. H. Clifford, says: "In making the footings from eighty societies, which have sent in definite reports, I find that they contributed $436.65 to the Salt Lake church, and $1,381.73 to other interests, making a total of $1,818.38." W. J. Lhamon, Minnesota, says: "On the basis of reports at hand, I estimate that the three hundred active members in this state have raised and expended $500 for various church and missionary enterprises." Miss Lottie B. Carr, New York: "Seventeen societies have contributed $675 to home missions, and $97 to foreign missions." James D. Hamlin, Missouri: "A fair estimate, from partial statistics, leads me to infer that our Missouri societies have given, during the past twelve months, to home and foreign missions, about $1,100; special contributions to local church work, $1,500, and about $300 to our state Sunday-school work." T. E. Cramblett, Nebraska: "At present our societies are making an attempt to pay $1,000 per year to sustain a professor in Cotner University. Nearly one-half of this amount has already been pledged. We have 110 societies in the state, giving us the lead, numerically, among the denominations." N. M. Ragland: "Our societies in Arkansas are contributing about $200 per annum to missions." G. Wilton Lewis: "With one solitary exception, our churches in New England now have Christian Endeavor Societies. In this section the Disciples are few and a feeble folk. Our societies have contributed more than $50 to the Salt Lake Church, $80 to local missions, and $1,800 toward local church-building." Miss Eva Lemert, Kansas: "Our societies in Kansas, so far ar reported to me, have raised $928 for missions, and $1,906 for other purposes. Our Kansas State Missionary Board urges upon all their workers in the field the importance of the Christian Endeavor work, and the evangelists of this Board have organized between thirty and forty societies." James G. Warren, Ohio: The reports that have come to me from about seventy-five societies indicate that their efforts have been to meet the most pressing needs of the local church. Some have furnished their churches, others painted them; several have furnished new song books; three societies have assumed considerable of the church debt; one has purchased a lot on which a mission is to be built; another has paid $350 toward a mission church, organized from a school they started a year ago; several are paying a stated part of the pastor's salary; several report mission schools being carried on by them with success; twenty-two societies report a total of $904 paid from their treasuries for local work. Those societies which have adopted the two-cents-a-week plan, as a rule, show the largest offerings for missions." But, enough. These extracts are sufficient to show that the Christian Endeavor societies among us are active in every department of our work, both at home and abroad. The summary report of contributions to the special works assigned our societies at Salt Lake City and in Japan, appear in the reports of our home and foreign societies.

SUGGESTIONS.

1. Let us be concerned, chiefly, about the spiritual purpose and possibilities of this providential movement among the young people. It may easily degenerate into a machine or tool to be used to advance special interests. President Clark's statement that the movement has now reached the "grind-my-axe" period, finds much to support it. Some seem interested in it for what they can get out of it. Let us seek to develop, above all, its spiritual power.

2. It should be made a great school of missions. The connection between our Missionary Boards and our Christian Endeavor societies should be made more intimate, not for the money that may be collected, but for the purpose of diffusing missionary intelligence. Our superintendents of Christian Endeavor will most gladly co-operate with our missionary secretaries in placing information concerning our missionary enterprises before our societies. That is the chief function of these superintendents. Our own literature should have the largest possible circulation through these societies, and they should be encouraged by pastors and church officers to form well-selected missionary libraries.

3. That our older brethren manifest a more thoughtful and practical interest in this movement. The Endeavor Societies are in the churches and for the churches. Their permanent motto is: "For Christ and the Church." The young people will gladly welcome friendly and fatherly counsel. It is of vital importance that this movement, so full of youthful enthusiasm and energy, and so pregnant with vast possibility for good (and perchance for evil), be wisely guided. Its place on our convention programmes should command the thoughtful attention and personal attendance of our experienced leaders. The years now passing will determine the place and power of this organization in all our great enterprises. This is the day of our opportunity. Let us be awake and wise
